Eight Persons Are Hurt In Road Mishaps

Kenneth Stoffer 'Serious' Following Rt. 45 Collision

A Salem man and a Hanoverton area woman were seriously injured and six others were hurt in three district traffic accidents Tuesday and today.

Local persons injured were: Kenneth Stoffer, 41, of 979 Jones Dr., who is listed in serious condition at Youngstown South Side Hospital with a possible brain concussion, lacerations of the scalp and contusions.

Mrs. Mary Hruby, 23, of RD 1, Hanoverton, who was taken to Salem City Hospital where she is in fairly good condition with a cerebral concussion.

Miss Marie L. Schumacker, 34, of Bayless Trailer Court, Damascus, also in fairly good condition at City Hospital after suffering facial lacerations.

Treated And Released

Frank D. Gray, 24, of 771 1/2 N. Lincoln Ave., who was treated at City Hospital for minor chest and mouth injuries and released.

Northern Ohioans injured and taken to South Side Hospital were:

Jack Whitman, 77, of RD 1, Rock Creek (Ashtabula County), in fair condition with a possible fractured and dislocated hip.

Clayton Grandbouche, 47, of RD 1, Austintown (Ashtabula County), in fair condition with chest injuries and contusions of the left side of face, elbow and leg.

Charles Henry, 46, of Warren, lacerations and contusions of the head.

Stanley Byroski, 66, of RD 1, Rock Creek, contusions of forehead and left arm.

Henry and Byroski were treated and released.

Collide On Route 45

The Canfield post of the State Highway Patrol said Stoffer's auto collided almost head-on at 4 p.m. Thursday on Route 45 just north of Palmyra with Grandbouche's car in which Henry, Whitman and Byroski were riding.

Stoffer was traveling south on Route 45 toward Salem after completing his day's work at the Austintown substation of the East Ohio Gas Co. The patrol said another southbound car driven by Mrs. Ray Hamilton of North Jackson was stopped on the highway, waiting to make a left turn into her driveway. Behind her was another car operated by William Ganslein of Bonview St., Alliance.

Rhodes to Land Here Tomorrow, Go to Liverpool

Governor James A. Rhodes is coming to East Liverpool by way of Salem Thursday, but he plans no stop in Salem.

Gov. Rhodes and members of his cabinet will land at Salem Air Park field on Route 45 about 7 a.m. Thursday, en route to East Liverpool for a meeting at 10 on East Liverpool industrial development.

Information on the schedule of the governor and his party was relayed Tuesday to the Community Improvement Corp. in East Liverpool, which arranged for his visit to East Liverpool's Memorial Auditorium.

The governor will be met by State Patrol cruisers or highway department autos, along with representatives of the CIC, for the trip to East Liverpool. The party is expected to travel on state Route 45 to Lisbon, then on Route 30 to East Liverpool.

Originally, the governor's plane had been scheduled to land either at Pughtown, W. Va., or at Greater Pittsburgh Airport, depending upon the presence or absence of fog that would require radio landing assistance, but the definite decision in favor of the Salem strip was made in the final arrangements announced yesterday.

The governor will leave immediately after his address for the return trip to Columbus.

Commander Rejects Red Demand

British Convoy Continues on Way After Halt by Soviets

BERLIN (AP) — A British military convoy held on the Berlin Autobahn by the Russians today moved westward, a British spokesman announced.

The British spokesman said the convoy continued its interrupted journey "on our terms."

That meant the British refused the Soviet demand for the British soldiers to dismount to be counted.

A British army spokesman said the convoy of nine vehicles, carrying 28 men, was stopped at 1:45 a.m. EST at the Babelsberg Checkpoint.

The convoy was en route to West Germany for a routine training exercise, the spokesman said.

It was understood that the Soviets demanded that the British soldiers get out of their vehicles and line up to be counted. The British convoy commander refused.

The Russians made the same demand of a U.S. convoy last week on the autobahn and the American commander similarly refused. A serious crisis resulted, but the Russians finally lifted their blockade.

British authorities in Berlin appeared convinced that the stopping of the convoy today was part of a Soviet plan. Informants said the British authorities rejected any suggestion that the trouble was the result of "local confusion," as the U.S. State Department had maintained when U.S. Army convoys were held up.

A second British convoy of 10 vehicles with 35 men was at Allied Checkpoint Bravo, less than a mile from Communist territory, and was ordered to remain there for the time being.

A British spokesman said the commander of the blockaded convoy, Capt. Arthur Keeling, 49, refused the Soviet demand because it was "completely at variance with normal procedure."

It was the first time since the 1948-49 Berlin blockade that the Russians had blocked a British military convoy on the 110-mile lifeline between Communist-surrounded West Berlin and West Germany.

A British spokesman said a protest was lodged with the Soviet authorities at Potsdam. The three Western commanders in Berlin immediately went into an emergency meeting.

While the British convoy was held up, a U.S. Army convoy of four vehicles and eight men bound for West Germany was cleared without difficulty, a U.S. spokesman said.

Since the resolution on Saturday of last week's autobahn crisis, the U.S. Army has sent a number of convoys through East Germany without difficulty. However, these movements involved large numbers of men who dismounted voluntarily to be counted.

Milder Rights Measure Urged

Bob Kennedy Seeks To Boost Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration seems willing to risk a few political brickbats—even from its own side—to make its civil rights program palatable to Congress.

The broadened version turned out by a House Judiciary subcommittee must have seemed like a nightmare to administration civil rights strategists equipped with the latest soundings of congressional sentiment.

Thus Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy urged the full committee Tuesday to whittle the bill down to the milder proportions recommended four months ago by President Kennedy.

This, the attorney general feels, was a strong, effective bill. It could, deftly handled, get the votes to make it a law by the end of the year.

Swollen with the subcommittee's innovations, it might scare away the most dedicated civil rights supporters, Kennedy said. His views reportedly were bitterly received by a few liberal Democrats who thought they knew Robert Kennedy well enough to think he'd be delighted by an all-out civil rights package that would widen his authority in virtually every field of American business and public life.

But these powers, Kennedy let it be known, would be more than he or any man in the United States should want to possess. They could, he believed, lead eventually to a national police force.

It has been four months since the House committee got the bill and it still hasn't turned it loose. It must journey through the Rules Committee to the House floor, to a Senate committee, to the Senate floor, through conference and then through compromise before it has run its course.

UF Drive Nears Half-Way Mark

Salem's Community Fund campaign, now in its second week, should top $50,000 by this weekend, Chairman Ray Reasbeck said today.

The goal is $86,250. The Professional Health team has already met its quota of $3,600, he said.

He urges all solicitors to turn in their pledges to Byron Maxson at the Chamber of Commerce office so that the total can be kept up to date.

Reasbeck expressed confidence that this year's goal will be met, but cautioned the workers against becoming complacent.

"We not only want to meet the goal, but we want to top it," he remarked.

New Waterford Man Hurt In Car Mishap

David Muir, 39, of New Waterford was treated today at 9 a.m. today at Salem City Hospital for minor injuries received when his car struck a utility pole. Further details were unavailable.

Pay Boosts Asked By Police, Firemen

Representatives of the fire and police departments Tuesday night presented City Council with a petition asking for pay raises which would amount to $12,480 yearly for the two forces combined.

The petition, which was signed by all members of both departments, asked for a $50 monthly raise for the departments' officers and a $40 monthly hike for all other employees.

Cited as reasons justifying the requests are the shorter work week, paid hospitalization and life insurance plans, paid holidays, longer vacations, clothing allowance and longevity pay being adopted for departments in surrounding communities.

Police and firemen here have received only a $24 raise in the last six years, averaging four dollars per year, they said.

The petition was sympathetically received by Council in general, but it was pointed out that the city, under no circumstances could appropriate money this year for the raises and would have to know exactly where the funds would come from before they could include the hikes in the 1964 budget.

Councilmen James Aldom and Ralph Zimmerman expressed the opinion that with the city elections this year, it would be unfair to grant the raises for 1964 and then "saddle" the incoming Council with the job of finding the funds to meet the expenditure.

Council also pointed out that it would, in all probability, be unwilling to consider pay raises for only the police and fire departments, indicating that any pay increases would include all municipal employees.

The petition was referred to a joint meeting of finance and safety committees, which will meet with representatives of all city departments and try to work out a satisfactory recommendation, either in the form of a direct pay increase or fringe benefits.

Bella Orders Mobilization

Fighting Erupts on Moroccan Frontier

ALGIERS (AP) — Thousands of Algerians streamed into army barracks today in answer to President Ahmed Ben Bella's general mobilization decree to meet the threat of war with Morocco.

The mobilization decree was issued Tuesday night after more fighting in the disputed outposts after two days of bloody skirmishes.

Ben Bella ordered all former soldiers — estimated to total 30,000 — to report for army service. At the same time efforts continued to negotiate a settlement of the dispute.

Those who answered the mobilization call included numerous young volunteers carried away by the officially whipped-up war fever. Many were clearly too young ever to have fought against the French.

Algerian sources said Ben Bella's call to arms was answered "with spontaneous enthusiasm." Several thousand men reported at the former French Orleans barracks in Algiers.

Despite the atmosphere of crisis, it seemed unlikely that the governments would allow the dispute to degenerate into war.

Mohammed Yazid, former Algerian information minister and Slimane Hoffman, an aide of Defense Minister Col. Houari Boumedienne, flew back to Algiers Tuesday night after a day of talks in Marrakech with King Hassan II of Morocco and other Moroccan leaders.

The two emissaries immediately went into conference with Ben Bella. They took off again at dawn to resume their talks in Marrakech.

There was no official word on the negotiations, but informed sources said little real progress had been made.

Reports from the Sahara said fighting had subsided.

Wellsville Man Gets Penitentiary Term

LISBON — A Wellsville area man who pleaded guilty to forgery was sentenced Tuesday by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Ralph E. Wright, 33, was given 1-20 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary after he changed his original plea of innocent to guilty. Wright was indicted with Joseph W. Call, 33, Hammondsville, who pleaded guilty and asked for immediate sentencing at arraignment day Sept. 24.

Wright requested probation, which was denied.

Lake Milton Man Arraigned In Niles

Zirwas Bound Over In Robbery-Slaying

NILES, Ohio (AP) — David Zirwas, 28, of Lake Milton, charged with first-degree murder in the robbery-slaying of a vending machine operator last month, has been bound over to the grand jury.

Trumbull County Sheriff Robert Barnett testified at Zirwas' arraignment before Municipal Court Judge Paul B. Moritz Tuesday that Zirwas admitted the fatal shooting of Ben Krawiecki, 46, on Sept. 19 and gave him the need for money as the motive.

The sheriff said Zirwas told authorities that he jumped into the rear seat of a car occupied by Krawiecki and pointed a revolver at him.

Krawiecki was shot in the back when he tried to run and the gunman drove away in the victim's car.

Police said a man of Zirwas' description robbed a Niles barber of $35 about an hour after the shooting and that night a

W. Germans Pick Erhard Chancellor

BONN, Germany (AP)—Ludwig Erhard, who directed West Germany's miraculous postwar economic recovery, was elected chancellor today to succeed Konrad Adenauer.

West Germany's lower house, the Bundestag, voted 279-180 to elevate the 66-year-old Erhard to the top government spot left vacant by Adenauer's reluctant retirement Tuesday. There were 24 abstentions and one invalid vote.

Erhard needed 250 votes to win. His Christian Democrats were joined by their partners in the coalition government, the Free Democrats. The Socialists voted against him.

The chancellor will go before the Bundestag later today to take the oath of office. He will present his new Cabinet to President Heinrich Lübke Thursday.

Erhard has been economics minister throughout Adenauer's tenure as West Germany's only chancellor since the Federal Republic was created in 1949.

'Hot Line'

Pentagon-Kremlin Circuit Checked Every Hour

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once every hour a bell shrills and the "hot line" teletype connection between the Pentagon and the Kremlin springs to life.

A message chatters across that line—across the 5,200 miles separating the center of Soviet power and the U.S. capital.

It's not a life-and-death message from President Kennedy to Soviet Premier Khrushchev, or the other way around.

Stark Board Of Elections Is Picketed

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Contending that ballots for the November election were printed by nonunion labor, members of the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' Union picketed the Stark County Board of Elections Tuesday.

Bruce Crandall, president of the union's Local 544, said the board was being picketed to deplore the Board of Elections' wisdom (sic) in using taxpayers' money to indirectly pay the wages of professional strike-breakers and scabs.

Union members said the ballots were printed by the Standard Printing Co. of Canton, where Locals 544 and 241 are on strike.

The company president, Paul H. Bolender, said, "It is not true we are using strike-breakers and scabs."

He said the company is operating normally and that there has been no ruling from the National Labor Relations Board on charge of unfair labor practices brought against the firm by the union.

Crandall said the dispute with Standard Printing developed after the union won bargaining rights for company employees in an NLRB election. He said that four of the seven workers who voted for union representation later were fired, prompting the filing of the charges.

James Seccombe, clerk of the election board, said the board was not aware of any labor trouble at the company when the $9,000 contract for the ballots was awarded Aug. 24.

It's a test, made hourly around the clock to be certain the circuit—which has another outlet at the White House—is working and ready in event of an emergency requiring instantaneous communication between the Russian and U.S. heads of state.

This has been going on since the line was declared open on Aug. 30.

If there have been any communications between Kennedy and Khrushchev during the six weeks the "hot line" has been in business, they are being kept secret. The Defense Department and the White House refuse to discuss the subject.

There is reason to believe the hot line was not used during last week's brief tension over Soviet halting of a U.S. troop convoy bound for West Berlin.

The only break in secrecy surrounding hot line messages became last month when William C. Foster, U.S. disarmament agency chief, told a House committee a Soviet test transmission "described in lyrical language the beauties of a Moscow sunset."

The Pentagon refused to give out the text of that Russian message, or any others received since, saying, "transmissions on the communication link between the USSR and the US are considered 'privacy transmissions.'"

Apparently teletype operators on the American end of the line haven't tried to match the Soviets in the prose department.

The Americans have confined themselves to the standard, "The quick brown fox jumped over a lazy dog's back."

"It has proven to be the best alphabetical test devised," the Defense Department said.

COLLISION REPORTED

Police investigated a two-car mishap at the intersection of W. Pershing St. and S. Ellsworth Ave. at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday. According to police, a car driven by Jay G. Hostetter, 59, of Rogers struck the rear of an auto operated by John Zines, 49, of MC 24 Salem. Hostetter told police that both vehicles were stopped for a traffic light and that his foot slipped from the brake pedal to the accelerator when he sneezed.

Council Told Expenditures Exceed Revenue

Makes No Mention Of General Fund; Tax Rates Accepted

City Auditor Helen Coyne told City Council Tuesday night that the Street Department does not have enough money to meet the payroll for the rest of 1963, nor does it have sufficient funds to buy the materials for ice and snow control during the approaching winter months.

Mrs. Coyne said the balance in the payroll appropriations for the year is $6,931.19, while the expected payroll for that period will be $12,500, leaving an anticipated deficit of $3,568.81.

The maintenance and supplies fund is in just as bad a shape, the auditor revealed. The balance in that fund for the rest of the year is $14,986.41, with outstanding bills for the months of August and September amounting to $14,314.54, leaving only $671.87 with which to buy materials for the rest of the year.

Estimated revenues for the balance of 1963 total $28,561.17, which includes $12,179.67 from auto licenses and $16,381.50 from gasoline tax. The total appropriations for the payroll and maintenance and supplies is $23,917.60 which would appear to leave $4,598.57 of the expected revenues which has not been appropriated, she declared.

The auditor pointed out that funds for traffic lights, street paint and the city's share of the street department workers' pension fund must come out of that amount, which will leave it almost depleted.

During 1962 and 1963 Council transferred $14,758.92 from the general improvement fund to the street department.

The auditor said $11,000 of that money was in 1962 to pay a backlog of bills, $910.82 was for a street-lining machine, $356.25 was for a traffic sign machine, $1,500 was for traffic signs and $991.85 was for a truck.

Asked what could be done about the financial plight of the department, Mrs. Coyne remarked that she could see no way out of it. "It's up to the Council and the service director to decide what to do," she stated.

In reply to a query by Councilman James Aldom, Mrs. Coyne

Leetonian Hurt As Scaffold Falls

Tony Datillio, 45, of 65 Washington St., Leetonia, is listed in fairly good condition at Salem Central Clinic with injuries sustained in a 23-foot fall from a scaffolding at his home Tuesday.

Datillio and his nephew, Richard Shar, also of Leetonia, were putting siding on his home at about 6 p.m. when a brace holding the scaffolding broke, plunging Datillio to the concrete walk below.

Shar held onto the scaffolding and then climbed down safely. Datillio suffered possible head injuries, possible spine injuries and possible broken ribs.

Jaycees To Hear Mayor Candidates

Mayor Dean B. Cranmer, a Democrat, and Nathan Harris, Republican candidate for mayor, will share the speaking platform at the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce meeting Thursday evening at the Saxon club.

Walter Taylor, Jaycees' president, said each candidate will be given 10 minutes to talk and then 10 minutes to answer questions from the audience.

All Junior Chamber members are urged to be present.

SALEM COUNTRY CLUB'S SWIMMING AREA will be bigger and better next summer with the Dec. 1 completion of construction now under way.

Water will be supplied from the creek, chlorine treated in the area to the right of the posts, and pumped into the one-half acre, 10-foot deep excavation on the left. The old portion of the pool may be identified by the cement bottom and diving platforms at right.

The new part will feature new diving boards, a sand bottom and a large sand beach. The entire area around the bathhouse will be seeded. The drainage spillway for this "lake-pool" will empty into a former swamp, which has been drained and tiled to carry off the water.

Wells Vaughters, club president, said this is the largest major improvement to the club grounds in more than 10 years.

Ruritans In Leetonia Elect Wayne Holloway

LEETONIA — Wayne Holloway was elected president of the Leetonia Ruritan and Alfred Lee vice president.

Other officers named are: George H. Smith, secretary; Harry Weikart, treasurer; and Lloyd Holloway, director.

Twenty-three members and 22 visitors were present for Ladies Night held at the Franklin Square Methodist Church.

The evening's speaker was Miss Sylvie Fayolle of France, an exchange teacher. Mrs. Nelson Lower gave two humorous readings. The door prize was won by Mrs. Harold Windram and the following members' October birthdays were recognized: Roy Fredrick, Harry Weikart, Lawrence Wilms, Lynn Ripley and Rev. T. P. Laughner. Flower corsages for the ladies were made by Mrs. Harry Ferrall.

The following children of St. Paul's Lutheran Church Beginner's department have received attendance pins: one year, Richard Stelts and Martin Stitler; two years, Marsha Holt, Mary Jo Stumpo and David Stelts; three years, David Stitler.

The Senior Choir will practice Thursday at 8 p.m. The Priscilla Club will meet in the church parlor and make cancer pads. Mrs. Warren Weikart is hostess.

Saturday, 9 a.m., First Year class; 10, Luther Choir; 10:30, Confirmations.

Adults interested in church membership are invited to meet with the pastor in his study Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Catholic Unit Approves Local Language for Sacraments

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted overwhelmingly Tuesday to extend the use of local languages to the sacraments, as well as the Mass, keeping Latin only for the very heart of the rites.

The more than 2,000 prelates meeting in St. Peter's Basilica also agreed to change the name of extreme unction—the Sacrament of Last Anointing—to "anointing of the sick." This was done to remove the fear-of-death overtones of the sacrament's present name.

Approval of these changes came in voting on amendments to a schema (topic) on liturgy, or public worship.

The council fathers also voted to end discussion on a difficult passage in a theological schema, "de ecclesia."

Almost every one of the council fathers rose to his feet in agreement on closing the debate on the passage, which deals with the relationship between papal authority and the collective authority of bishops, the creation of permanent deacons, and the role of priests in the church hierarchy.

A council press spokesman said the prelates voted 2,133 to 19, with seven ballots voided, for extending the vernacular to the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, penance, matrimony, and extreme unction. The council previously approved the use of modern languages in parts of the Mass.

Tuesday's amendment voting does not make the changes final. The schema as a whole must be approved by the council and by Pope Paul VI before it becomes effective.

Segregation Leader Wins Georgia Race

ALBANY, Ga. (AP) — A 45-year-old white segregationist has won the Democratic nomination for mayor of this racially troubled Southwest Georgia city where a Negro sought the office for the first time.

Attorney James V. Davis received 7,220 votes Tuesday, well over a majority of those cast in a record turnout, making a runoff unnecessary. Nomination in the primary means election.

Slater King, a Negro integration leader, was second with 2,547 votes.

The second white man in the race, architect Edward V. Jones, was third with 1,879 votes. He also is a segregationist and opposed formation of any biracial committees.

The outcome indicated little, if any, change in race relations in this city where more than 1,200 arrests were made during intermittent demonstrations the past two years.

Davis said he thought that "what will be done for the colored people will have to be done within the framework of segregation."

King, acting president of the Anti-segregation Albany Movement, called for creation of a biracial committee to discuss grievances. None has been established.

The racial issue and clear, sunny weather brought a turnout of more than 11,500 voters.

Albany's 58,000 population includes about 24,000 Negroes. There are an estimated 4,600 Negroes among the 16,436 registered voters.

County-Wide GOP Club To Be Formed

A group of young Republicans from various parts of the county met Monday in Lisbon and discussed the possibility of forming a county-wide young Republican club, according to Atty. Charles Pike, Columbiana County Republican chairman.

At present there are three young Republican clubs in the county at East Liverpool, Salem and Wellsville. The proposed county-wide club could coordinate the activities of these already active groups and also provide a young Republican affiliation for the remaining villages of the county.

A formal organizational meeting will be held at the county headquarters in Lisbon Nov. 18 at 8 p.m., with John Maag of Salem, organizational chairman, in charge.

All young Republicans from the county are invited.

County Women at Farm Bureau Rally

Sixty-seven Columbiana County Farm Bureau women attended the Northeast Ohio Farm Bureau Women's rally Tuesday at Meyers Lake Park in Canton.

Columbiana and Stark counties tied for the attendance record. Approximately 500 women from 30 northeastern counties were in attendance.

The theme for the all-day affair was "Our Church, Our Country, and Our Home." Rev. Russell Hoy of Coshocton County was the guest speaker.

Miss Margaret Brugler, co-director of the Ohio Christian Rural Overseas program, spoke and showed slides on "Farmers of Lebanon Help Themselves." Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dietz of Minerva are in Lebanon helping the farmers under this program.

Mahoning County placed third in the safety contests.

Mrs. Don Sanor, Salem RD 1, presented a comical reading as Columbiana County's part of the program.

Mrs. Raymond Gunkleman of Ashland presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Evelyn Hoopes of Belmont RD 2, organizational director of the Farm Bureau, was in charge of the local delegation.

Man Sentenced for Attempted Burglary

LISBON — Kenneth Leroy McVay, 28, Lisbon RD, was sentenced Tuesday to 1 - 15 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

McVay was found guilty by a petit jury Monday of the attempted burglary of the Cowan Store in Rogers.

A verdict is expected today in the trial of Floyd Richards, 20, Lisbon, charged with the same offense.

DISCUSS ROAD WORK

LISBON — Discussion on road work and the purchase of snow fence were held when the Center Township trustees met Tuesday evening.

Bills of $644 were ordered paid.

Publication Ceased by N.Y. Mirror

NEW YORK (AP)—The financially distressed New York Mirror has ceased publication after 39 years and some of its assets have been sold to the New York Daily News.

"It takes everything I've got to keep from crying," said John Hearst Jr., grandson of the Mirror's founder, the late William Randolph Hearst, when the morning newspaper's demise was announced Tuesday night.

"If we could have economized," added Hearst, associate editor of the Mirror, "we would have done it. Most holes have a bottom, but this one did not seem to have any."

The Mirror's last edition rolled off the presses at 2:17 a.m. today.

The death knell had been rumored for months. The confirming announcement came at around 6 p.m.

Wilfred Alexander, president of the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild's New York local and shop steward of the union's Mirror unit, read the announcement to 75 editorial employees in the city room. He criticized what he termed the "callous and cold-blooded way this was kept from you."

More United Than the Others

Experts on the spot say the Chinese People's Republic stands no more chance of getting into the United Nations this year than before.

This amounts to saying it stands no chance at all, and when that has been said there is nothing more to say about this glaring defect in the United Nations.

No organization that purports to be representative of the nations of the world can lay claim to true representation unless it can settle the Chinese puzzle.

Wartime China is a charter member of the United Nations. It is in the Security Council, with the United States, United Kingdom, France and the Soviet Union.

Yet, all that is left of wartime China is the remnants of the wartime government and the fraction of the wartime army that fled to Formosa when the government fell. This is not China, either territorially or numerically. It does not speak for the Chinese people.

As long as it exists, nevertheless, it will be regarded as China and the government that is indisputably in control of China will be ignored. This will be done in the name of censure and disapproval of this government's actions and its Communist character.

But it is no more and no less Communist in character than the government of Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary, Cuba and Yugoslavia, all members in good standing.

It has committed no more and no less atrocities than half a dozen governments in the United Nations, including the two members of the Security Council that ganged up with Israel to pounce on Egypt in the Suez crisis.

The truth is that diplomacy and statesmanship lack the composite intelligence to work their way out of the Chinese puzzle. In the meantime, some nations will continue to be more excited than others.

No Place to Hide

The House Appropriations Committee has manhandled $195 million for fallout shelters into oblivion and with a little luck this item will stay there until something plausible has been designed to spend it on.

With the possible exception of supershelters that will be made available to high authority if thermonuclear war ever starts, there is no place to hide in the event of ultimate destruction.

The only safe place will be at a distance from the blast so great its repercussions will be dissipated. All who are fortunate enough to be that far away will not be living in urban centers. They will be too scattered to take advantage of fallout shelters built for that specific purpose.

This is not to say there can be no such thing as a fallout shelter; there can be. It is only to say no national program for building fallout shelters has been devised. The 195 million the House Appropriations Committee has taken out of the budget request is not a meaningful sum. A nationwide program would cost more like $195 billion—if a program existed.

Until it has been brought into existence, there is no purpose to be served by piddling away money to build things that would be obsoleted before they were finished.

Dad sometimes sneaks away to go fishing and doesn't catch a thing until he gets home.

It's Your Turn

It's probably hoping for too much, human nature being what it is, but how magnanimous it would be if all of the 125 blood donors needed for the Oct. 24 bloodmobile visit are new givers.

A number of the one, two, three and four-gallon donors will be back, yet if a sufficient number of newcomers would step forward, those who have given so much could let some others find out how easy it is to donate a pint of blood and how good you feel in your own heart that you have been able to provide life-giving fluid that can be the means of saving someone else's life.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

The tragedy that killed six persons when a 10-ton helicopter crashed at Idlewild Airport last Monday has lined me up for a bitter session of "I told you so" from the lady I fly in helicopters with.

She and I have flown in a helicopter once. I was ready to fly again. I thought it was a lark. Compared with that other kind of flying machine, a helicopter gives you something to think about.

It makes a contest out of something the other flying machines do as a matter of course. This pleased me, but not the lady I was flying with. She didn't like the contraption.

It was the one that crashed Monday, or another just like it. The machine had just been put into service. It was an improvement over the type it supplanted. My lady mistrusted it from the first look.

WERE WE on our way from Idlewild to Newark. By helicopter it's a few minutes. By bus or cab it's a long haul. When you're on your way home from a trip abroad, you don't want to take a long ride in New York City traffic. Hence the helicopter.

It was part of the trip. The tickets had been bought weeks before. The whirly-bird ride at the end of our trip abroad was the last dab of frosting on the cake.

The machine was noisy. It was powered by a jet engine, instead of a conventional piston engine. When it revved up to lift off, it vibrated. When it lifted off and leaned into the wind, it was scary.

My lady was swallowing hard and batting her eyes. She had the appearance of an animal that has been bagged in a trap and is awaiting the worst.

She kept looking at me for reassurance. Did I think everything was all right? Did

I think the fellows up front knew what the boys and girls in the back room were having?

Was the hostess—a hostess on this thing for a few minutes aloft, of all the darned fool ideas—kidding when she reminded the passengers there were magazines to read?

WHEN WE fluttered to a safe landing at Newark, I think my lady was almost disappointed; she had been so sure that we'd never make it. And ever since, she has talked about it.

The things we saw abroad were incidental to a few minutes over New York harbor in a contraption built on the lines of a couple of maple leaves whirling through a gale. She never has quit talking about the one time she lived dangerously.

Everything that happened to those helicopters afterward gave her satisfaction; everything bad. When they fluttered into New York Bay on two occasions she gloated. No one was hurt—but someone might have been, she pointed out.

SHE'S NOT gloating about the tragedy that killed six persons—three passengers and three crew members. But she is steely. "I told you so," she said stonily when she heard the news. "That thing wasn't working right."

Since she took her ride, they have made thousands of trips. They're probably safer than a walk around the block.

But don't try to tell the lady I once rode in a helicopter with that the contraptions are anything but what she feels sure they are—monstrous devices of the devil, built to decimate the human race with fright, or worse.

By VICTOR RIESEL

An hour before President Kennedy publicly approved the sale of golden wheat to the Red world, he decided to take no chances on its delivery. He held everything until a few swift phone calls were made to the New York waterfront.

Victor Riesel
Special line to Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz.

Mr. Kennedy asked him to learn how the waterfront labor leaders would react. Wirtz flashed Assistant Secretary of Labor Jim Reynolds.

The latter then called International Longshoremen's Association Vice President Tony Scott. The President wanted him to know that at 6 o'clock he would announce approval of the wheat sale. Reynolds said, Kennedy had asked if the grain would move swiftly. Scott said he thought it would.

Another call had been made to big Joe Curran, the petrel—often stormy—of American seamen and president of the National Maritime Union (NMU). Curran said, sure the grain would move. He was not for keeping food from hungry people. What he wanted was to strangle the Communist dictatorships, not starve their people. That was late in the afternoon of Oct. 9.

THE NEXT MORNING he elaborated. Standing on the speaker's dias at the National Maritime Union's 13th convention, Curran unleashed a shouting speech to the 650 delegates as though subconsciously hoping some wind would carry his words to the White House without benefit of phone lines.

Curran wanted to strangle the Cuban dictatorship. He charged that the Communist international machine, "has transformed the island of Cuba into a relay station for the Communist international conspiracy through which propaganda material, military supplies and trained infiltration subversion and direct attack on America to be used for sabotage, democratic regimes."

His people cheered his demand for tougher action by the U.S. government and our allies. The delegates knew, from personal experience, what their Big Joe was talking about.

Their lines of communication were longer than anchor chains. They had been the first to report the Soviet military buildup and the construction of rocket and submarine bases.

The men, in from the seas for a few days, know of the subterranean lands who seek to make a profit from Cuban Communism.

IN THE HALL was my good friend Rene (Angie) Lioeangie. In Panama City, early in July, Angie had disclosed to me the extent of Castroite infiltration into the Panama Canal Zone.

In a corner of the convention floor, Angie told me of shippers in the Dutch-owned West Indian island of Curacao who had recently called in the local sailors' and longshoremen's union officials.

The shippers had said that a new ocean freight service was being organized to transport Cuban sugar to Chile. In return vital supplies would be brought up from the South American nation. Curacao would be the transshipment point.

The longshoremen had gone to Angie. He had cabled Curran. The word from the national NMU headquarters was to boycott the ships—don't load them at the transshipment point. The ships have not been loaded.

In the convention hall were other NMU continent-trotting troubleshooters. They are helping the anti-Communist waterfront people, financially, organizationally and culturally to fight off infiltration of Cuban saboteurs.

Curran told his people that it appeared hopeless unless the U.S. government boycotted all ships of all fleets which were sending in even a single freighter with supplies to Castro's own flying contingents.

HE CALLED on all other countries to boycott Cuba. The convention then voted him a riproaring approval for the global ocean boycott of Communist trade which he had futilely attempted to launch during last October's eyeball to eyeball showdown.

They urged him to go to the meeting of the pious leaders of the International Federation of Transportworkers' Seafarers Section in Copenhagen on Nov. 27.

This federation, based in London, has millions of members in thousands of affiliated unions.

Its leaders, such as Omar Becu, trot around the globe making fierce anti-Communist speeches. But they shy away from boycott action. They will not call on their waterfront and seafaring affiliated unions to refuse to handle guns, machinery, electronic equipment and other supplies for Communist Cuba—much less for Communist China. Curran and his militant fellow unionists in the hall shouted for international morality on the part of the transportworkers of the free world.

Wheat for the hungry, yes. Guns and sabotage equipment for our enemies, no. These are the words Curran wanted wafted down to the White House.

Wheat for the Hungry

The Great Debate

By DAVID LAWRENCE

The chance of another "great debate" between Republican and Democratic presidential nominees is diminishing.

Intimations have been coming from Democratic sources that President Kennedy might take the position that such a debate is undesirable.

David Lawrence wise. No president of the United States has heretofore subjected himself to cross-examination by a political opponent. There is evidence, too, that Republicans are beginning to be doubtful about the TV show.

Sen. Goldwater has just declined to debate with Gov. Rockefeller, who recently challenged him. The Arizona senator said the didn't see much good in an intraparty debate—with Republican fighting Republican on issues within the party. He didn't say whether, if nominated for the presidency, he would challenge President Kennedy.

Sen. Ribicoff, D-Conn., thinks a "great debate" is almost certain. He says "it will be pretty hard for any candidate to refuse to accept a challenge of debate."

Sooner or later, however, some presidential nominee will have the courage to give the American people the real reasons why the "great debate" idea is fundamentally a backward step in political campaigning.

ing. What does such a debate really prove? That one candidate is more agile in a fencing match of words than the other, or that one is better looking as compared to the other?

What does it tell the country of the real issues on which the voters should make up their mind? Can a debate covering a variety of questions, with impromptu answers, do justice to either nominee's position in a campaign?

THERE IS no reason why just as much value couldn't be obtained by giving each nominee separately a whole evening, if necessary, on the radio and television to answer the questions propounded by a panel of interrogators.

It would enable each candidate to answer questions in his own way and at whatever length he deemed desirable. If the rival nominee were to do the same thing the next evening or a few nights later and the same type of questions were asked, there could be an arrangement for rebuttals on subsequent evenings.

This would be more informative to the voters than the catch-as-catch-can type of debate which was provided in the 1960 campaign.

The Dixon-Kennedy debates may have changed votes on both sides, and the consensus at the time was that Mr. Kennedy made a better appearance.

Wouldn't that same comparison, solely on the basis of facial expression or agility in answering questions, have been possible if the debate had been longer each evening with each candidate being given a fuller opportunity to discuss on his own all the issues of the campaign?

The "great debate" of 1960 gave the impression of being a series of stunts to attract an unprecedented number of viewers and listeners.

There have, of course, been TV shows with much larger audiences. Thus, it seems plausible that a "great debate" between Jack Paar and Bob Hope on almost any subject would attract an even bigger audience than any political candidates have gathered thus far.

AMERICA VOTERS by the millions have revealed again and again a superficial attitude toward presidential campaigns. Too many vote on the basis of a personal like or dislike of a candidate's appearance. Too many of them pay no attention to the issues or do not really understand the speech-making.

To center a whole campaign on a comparison of the candidates' personalities, or even on their fragmentary answers to questions in a TV debate, is to leave the choice of a top executive to the whims of a mass audience.

Debates are not conducive to a thoughtful presentation of issues. Even the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates of more than a century ago contain many a statement which both men regretted afterwards.

As the qualifications for voting are gradually changed to permit more and more people to vote irrespective of their ability to understand the issues of a campaign, the tendency under a system of "great debates" on TV will be to nominate not the most capable executive in the country but the most spectacular personality—the best showman.

THAT'S WHY, if President Kennedy declines to enter a "great debate" in the 1964 campaign, there will be no tears shed on the part of those citizens who don't believe in the stunt idea but who think each candidate should thoroughly discuss the issues throughout the campaign—each in his own way—so that the press and radio and TV can disseminate widely the views of both for careful study by the voters.

Today In History

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 16, the 289th day of 1963. There are 76 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1813, Russia, Prussia and Austria joined forces to defeat Napoleon in the Battle of Leipzig, Saxony.

On this date: In 1793, Queen Marie Antoinette of France was executed.

In 1859, John Brown began his historic raid at Harper's Ferry.

In 1926, a troop ship was blown up in China's Yangtze River with the loss of 1,200 lives.

In 1944, the U.S. 3rd Fleet successfully executed carrier attacks against the Japanese in the Philippines during World War II.

Ten years ago: An explosion aboard the aircraft carrier Leyte while it was being overhauled in Boston, killed 36 and injured 40.

Five years ago: President Bourguiba of Tunisia pledged strong support of the Western powers while accusing the United Arab Republic of working with his enemies.

One year ago: President Kennedy awarded Navy astronaut wings to Comdr. Walter Schirra for his six-orbit flight around the earth.

Q's and A's

Q—When was transcontinental television inaugurated?

A—On Sept. 4, 1951, with President Truman's address at the Japanese Peace Treaty Conference in San Francisco.

Ann Landers Answers

Dear Ann Landers: Two years ago my husband, as a gag, wrote to a teen-age girl who was looking for a pen pal. Gerald got her name out of a magazine. I thought it was pretty funny at the time. He let me see the letter before he sent it, and I must say he certainly did invent a believable character.

I stopped laughing about six months later when I discovered Gerald was writing to 12 girls in nine different states. His hobby has become such an important part of his life he can't wait till he gets home to learn if he has a letter from Yuma or Bakersfield. He telephones during his lunch hour to find out what has arrived.

Gerald is 56 years old and has been a wonderful husband. If we had had children our lives would have been complete.

He says his hobby is a harmless one because he never intends to see any of these girls. I hate to demand that he stop writing letters because he seems to get such a kick out of it. Your advice is needed—GERALD'S WIFE.

Dear Wife: A 56-year-old man who gets his kicks by pretending he is a teen-ager needs more help than I can provide. Tell him to see a doctor.

Date Breaker

Dear Ann: What shall I do about a so-called girl friend? (I will call her Maurine.) We are both 16 and live in a town where the boys are so busy tinkering with their cars they haven't discovered girls yet. There are only about two girls in our whole school who get asked for dates and we are not those two.

Maurine and I had plans for Friday night. We were going to have supper at my house and go to the 7 o'clock movie.

At 4:30 p. m. Maurine telephoned, practically out of her mind with excitement. Rickey, who is a great big round wheel at school, had just called her and asked if she'd like to go bowling with him. Maurine said, "Just knew you'd be thrilled for me so I said yes."

I was plenty burned up at being ditched and I want your opinion of her.—STOOD UP.

Dear Up: Maurine overestimated you. If you were truly her friend you'd have been happy for her instead of "burned up."

Maurine should have told Rickey, however, that she had a previous date with you and turned him down. He would have been twice as eager to take her out next weekend—and she would have lost nothing.

Ungrateful Guests

Dear Ann: My husband's sister telephoned us last Sunday from somewhere in Montana. The whole family was heading this way, en route to Springfield, and planned to arrive Tuesday or Wednesday, depending on roads, weather and so on. We said we'd be happy to put them up—all six of them.

Tuesday evening my husband and I decided to go to a band concert. When we got home at about 11:30 we were shocked to find the weary travelers asleep on the porch furniture. When we woke them my sister-in-law was very uppity. She said, "We telephoned so you'd be expecting us. This is a lovely welcome."

They left the next day and I feel very guilty. Should we have stayed home and waited for them?—G AND H.

Dear G and H: No. Guests who cannot be specific about their arrival time should not be unhappy if the red rug isn't around the clock. Forget it.

Confidentially

The reason they don't accept him is because you talked too much, Lady. You "damned with faint praise and, without sneering, taught the rest to sneer." Start to repair the situation NOW.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Maryland Operating Novel Work Program for Prisoners

BALTIMORE (AP) — An advertising salesman clears his desk at the end of the day. South of town, a construction worker borrows his employer's pickup truck for a 6-mile drive. A laborer in a nearby quarry telephones to say he will be late — he must work overtime again. All three are serving prison sentences. They are participating in Maryland's new work release program for prisoners.

There are 19 prisoners — 16 men and 3 women — taking part. They include a truck driver, farm hand, kitchen worker, laundry worker, nurse's aide, clerk, construction worker and mechanic.

Their offenses include robbery, burglary, housebreaking, larceny, assault, domestic cases and fraud. The prisoners spend their nights in seven of Maryland's nine correctional institutions.

James W. Curran, commissioner of the Maryland Department of Correction, says the offenses of the participants often are misleading. "They are only labels," says Curran. "Most of the time there are extenuating circumstances."

Only narcotics and sex offenders are excluded from the program.

The program began under a law introduced by Democratic State Sen. Edward O. Weant Jr., and passed this year by the general assembly. The first participants arrived on the job July 1.

Only North Carolina has a similar statewide program, created in 1957, although Wisconsin authorizes local jails to operate their own work release program.

About 2,000 of Maryland's prisoners are trustees and work each day, weather permitting, outside the prison. But they wear prison uniforms and are under supervision and guard.

It's a different story for the work release prisoner. He leaves the prison without supervision and wears whatever clothes are appropriate for the job. The ad man, for instance, changes into a suit.

Some walk to work. Others ride public buses. Sometimes the employer provides transportation.

"Our ultimate goal," says acting director Frederick E. Terri-noni, "is to get the prisoner paroled." He says the work release program "teaches the prisoners to accept and learn obligations."

To be eligible, the prisoner can be serving a term of no longer than five years. Curran estimates that 90 per cent of the 4,000 prisoners committed each year fall into this category.

Admiral Kirk, Naval Hero, Diplomat Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Adm. Alan G. Kirk, 74, a naval hero who spent 40 years in military service and then went on to high diplomatic assignments, died Tuesday in Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center.

Kirk entered the hospital Sept. 1 for treatment of a heart ailment.

He resigned last April as ambassador to Nationalist China because of ill health. He had held the post for almost a year.

Kirk retired from the Navy in 1946 to accept appointment as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg.

He later served three years as ambassador to Russia and for a brief period as director of Strategy Board.

Kirk left a distinguished and action-packed naval career when he began his diplomatic assignments.

The Taming of Orval

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—You get a frantic phone call at the office from your extra frantic wife, who says, "Well, they just got Orval."

In addition to anger and concern, you are filled with curiosity. The methods "they" might use for getting Orval are important because you have never been able to get him yourself. "How did they get him?" is asked.

"They shot him. He has three bullet holes in his side."

You are enraged. You call the sheriff and get him on the way to extract three bullets from the side or a brown and tan, sway-backed, cross-eyed, lop-eared, bow-legged dog who should have happened to someone else.

It turned out Orval hadn't been shot. The vet said he had been in an argument with another dog. Seventeen stitches put him back together and ran his repair bill past $50.

Two weeks earlier he had caught a Volkswagen. After stitching, he appeared to have been cut in half and put back together, and he still looks that way.

Orval spent his first six months as a free agent in Gay Woods. Finally he made his way to the city and was about to be impounded when he gave him refuge. He made a fine pet. He was gentle and playful. But he never lost the wildness of his youth.

A backyard fence (no small purchase) wouldn't hold him. He dug under until we had to reinforce the base of the fence with logs.

Then he learned how to paw open the back screen door, dash through the house, throw a body block on the front screen door, and roll clear. Once he was out, he paid no attention to calls and he was impossible to catch.

I consulted the vet. He decided Orval had emotional problems, brought on by lack of proper upbringing. He suggested various kindnesses and painstaking training. It didn't work. The neighbors were giving not-so-tactful suggestions about what should be done with him.

Then one day as we were ready to leave on a trip, Orval pulled his through-the-house and away trick.

I was angry. I went after him. Rage gave me super-human speed. The chase led three times around the house, across the road and through a patch of thick woods. Finally he made a flying dive and nailed him, and when he looked meekly up at me, I knew Orval was tamed.

In those big brown eyes I law respect, the trademark of him home I felt a little triumphant, a little sad, and a little guilty.

Mrs. Robert J. Clunen

Sue Ann Steffel Wed To Robert J. Clunen

Miss Sue Ann Steffel, daughter of Mrs. Mary Steffel of 518 Park Ave., and Robert Joseph Clunen, son of Mrs. Sylvia Clunen of Front St., Leetonia, and the late Joseph Clunen, were married at an 11 a. m. nuptial mass Saturday in St. Paul's Catholic Church.

Rev. J. Richard Gaffney officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar graced with vases of white gladioli and mums. Mrs. Leon Kuniewicz was soloist and organist.

Escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, James P. McNeelan, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle designed with Sabrina neckline, long sleeves and waterfall of lace and tulle at the back of the bouffant skirt.

A Danish crown of pearls and crystals held her fingertip length veil of illusion and her flowers were white carnations and pink rosebuds on a white Bible, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Sally Steffel, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of Ming blue chiffon over taffeta styled with a ballerina skirt. Her sequin crown matched her dress and she carried pink carnations.

Richard Clunen served his brother as best man and ushering were James Snyder and Robert James.

Mrs. Steffel chose a teal blue dress with jeweled bodice. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue suit with lace bodice. Both mothers had corsages of pink carnations.

200 at Reception

Two hundred guests attended the reception that evening in the school auditorium and were registered by Marcia and Debbie Snyder, nieces of the bride.

Pink and white tulle and tendrils of ivy accented the satin covered bride's table whose focal point was a three-tier cake of aqua and white topped with miniature bride and groom.

Judge Donbar also officiated at the wedding of Miss Helen Cusick of Rogers and Larry Graham of Leetonia who were married Saturday evening in the court room.

Plant Office Girls Party Here Is Enjoyable Event

Places were laid for 198 when the office girls of Salem manufacturing companies gathered for their annual dinner Monday evening in the social room of the First Christian Church.

Table appointments were in silver and blue in keeping with this 25th anniversary of the annual party which was started in 1938 by girls of the Deming Company.

A compote of blue tinted carnations and silver foliage centered the speaker's table which was lighted with branching silver candelabra holding blue candles of various heights. Myriad blue candles in silver ribbon holders, made by Miss June Kennedy, decorated the other tables, which were covered in white and centered with a wide band of blue. Favors were tiny silver spoon lapel pins and "puppy dog" paper weights.

Program covers were in matching blue with silver 25th anniversary motifs. Arrangements for the dinner and decorations were made by the girls of the Bliss Company under the chairmanship of Miss Shirley Davidson, who served as mistress of ceremonies.

Following the dinner Jack Gregor of Warren presented a program of "Humor and Magic" enlisting the aid of several members of his audience. Miss Dorothy Hileman of the Deming Division, Crane Company, was program chairman.

Prizes were won by Lois Frost, Edith Purviance, Pat Wilde, Billie Beery, Joan Robinson, Helen Petty, Ruth Sheen, Alice Stallsmith, Kay Waller, Clara Mae Hannay, Stella Vaccar, Charlene Rayans, Vanita Kubas, Thelma Cope and Mrs. Russell Shaffer Sr. This was under the direction of Miss Karen Moff and Miss Martha Strabala.

Mrs. Ralph Black was chairman in charge of door prizes.

The following manufacturing firms were represented: Barclay Machine Inc., Bellows-Valvair-Hunt Valve plant, E. W. Bliss, Church Budget Envelope, Deming Division-Crane, Electric Furnace, Eljer Plumbingware Div., Lincoln Machine, Mullins Manufacturing, Quaker City Foundry, Salem China, Salem Label, Salem Tool, Salem Valve, Silver Manufacturing and Sterling-Salem Corporation.

Girl employees of Bellows-Valvair will be hosts at the 1964 party.

The Granges

Guilford Convenes

Esther Scott presided at the business meeting when members of Guilford Grange met Saturday evening in the grange hall.

It was announced that the fifth degree be exemplified in full form at Midway Grange Saturday evening at 8:30 p. m.

The group voted a donation to C.R.O.P.

"Columbus Day" was the theme of the program in charge of Clara Rhodes. Sadie Belat presented a paper, "Today is History," and conducted a quiz, "things to be found on a penny." Mrs. Belat also read a paper on the licensing of drivers and the dangers of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Refreshments were served by the home economics committee.

The next meeting of the group will be Oct. 26 at 8:30 p. m. in the grange hall.

Midway Grange will be host to Pomona Grange Saturday. The meeting will be in charge of Lowell Smit, Pomona master.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: How many of your readers have ever used discarded nylon stockings for pillow stuffing? It's absolutely terrific!

Wash and sort your light-colored stockings and cut down the back of the stockings removing the seam. Then stuff your pillows with the stockings.

These pillows can be washed in the washing machine, run through the wringer and dry quickly. They are always "springy", never get musty and are a delight to use. It takes lots of stockings to stuff a pillow, so you girls start saving now!

The beauty of using stockings to stuff pillows is that no matter what condition the stocking is in, they can be used for this purpose.

These make luscious bed pillows!

N.

DEAR HELOISE: If you wax the inside and outside of metal wastepaper baskets, they will not rust and are far easier to wipe clean. Naturally, for quick and neat emptying, a paper bag is placed inside of them.

MRS. GUY MALONE.

DEAR HELOISE: When there is a real hole or worn out spot in any garment, (even in a sheer fabric) stitch a piece of your famous nylon net to the back, and then mend or darn with added ease! It makes a perfect patch. Material doesn't pucker.

C.D.

FROM HELOISE'S KITCHEN

DEAR LADIES: Did you know that you could take a piece of thin plastic wrap... cut it to fit the bottom of your silver tray and then put your deviled eggs on it for your parties and it won't even show? Try it, it's so!

And it won't tarnish the silver! Use this method for all silver trays and protect them. Especially the acid foods (which eat silver) such as pickles, olives, etc.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: What do you do when you shop only once a month and find that bag of potatoes getting old and wrinkled? And "eyes" looking at you?

S.T.

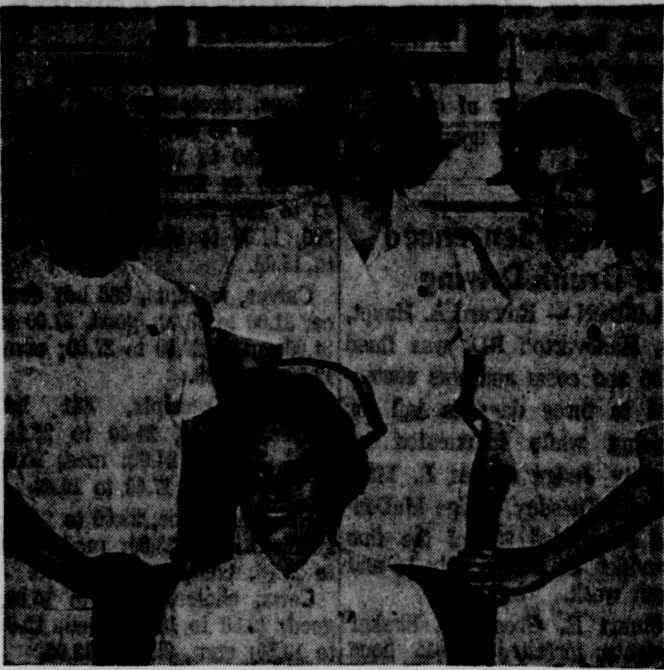

DEAR S.T.: I start making potato salad... real quick! (or scalloped potatoes, potato pancakes, etc.)

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To mothers with growing daughters, whose waistlines are always changing...

Buy gathered and pleated skirts a little larger in the waistband, then sew a strip of narrow elastic inside the back of the band. Stretch the elastic while stitching. Four or five inches of elastic is plenty. After the skirt is on, it doesn't show at all and the skirt always fits.

Officers of Nurses Group

URGES BOND ISSUE OK

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Passage of State Issue No. 1, the proposed $250 million bond issue on the November ballot, has been urged by the Ohio Association of College Presidents.

The association, made up of presidents from both private and state-supported institutions, noted in a resolution Tuesday that the proposal would mean $175 million for higher education. Presidents of private schools said they supported the issue on the belief it would "benefit all Ohio education."

'Wrongful-Death' Suit Filed As Result of Crash

A wrongful death suit for $121,864.16 was filed Tuesday in common pleas court at Lisbon by Mrs. Nina E. Knag, administratrix of the estate of Leon B. Knag, Salem RD 1.

Jerry Allen Schaffer, 19, Winona, Nancy Lee Bryan Hough, administratrix of the estate of Leroy M. Hough, Salem, and Harold C. Whinnery, Winona, were named the defendants.

Mrs. Knag claims that on March 22 on Rt. 62, just west of Salem, her husband's car was struck head-on by an auto driven by Schaffer, after the latter's vehicle had collided with Mr. Hough's car.

Mrs. Hough's husband also was killed in the four-car crash. The petition claims he failed to yield the right of way to the Schaffer car.

Whinnery, Schaffer's grandfather, owned the car the youth drove when the fatal crash occurred.

Schaeffer is currently serving a six-month jail sentence given him Oct. 7 by Common Pleas Judge Raymond S. Buzzard on a second-degree manslaughter charge arising from the crash.

CHILD'S DEATH PROBED

CINCINNATI (AP) — Hamilton County authorities have ordered an autopsy on Terri Lynn Washington, 3, who died Tuesday after a whipping and a fall from the porch of her home at suburban Silverton.

The coroner's office said her mother, Mrs. Naomi Washington, 26, admitted whipping the girl with a strap Monday after she got dirty. Two hours later, Mrs. Washington said, Terri Lynn was on the back porch and apparently fell down a concrete steps. She died in Children's Hospital of brain injuries.

Trees Available Now From Forestry Dept.

Now is the time trees should be ordered from the state nursery for producers interested in doing reforestation and planting trees next year, according to Donald K. Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

Those who wait until the last minute next spring may not get the kind of trees they want or need, he said.

The state department of forestry reports the stock growing in its three nurseries is excellent, with a large variety of species. There are 20 kinds of hardwood and nine conifers available.

The prices of the trees range from $8 to $15 per thousand, depending upon the species of tree and age.

Tree order forms are available from any division of forestry office, farm forester, county extension office or soil conservation service offices. A list of trees for reforestation purposes, together with a tree selection guide, showing the relative adaptability of each species, is available upon request, Myers said.

Countian Sentenced For Drunk Driving

LISBON — Edward A. Haupt, 64, Hanover RD, was fined $100 and costs and was sentenced to three days in jail for driving while intoxicated by County Judge James L. MacDonald Tuesday. Judge MacDonald suspended $50 of the fine provided he drives only to and from work.

Stuart E. Gross, 47, Shaker Heights, forfeited a $15 bond for speeding, and Belle H. Kayler, 63, Alliance, a $20 bond for failure to stop for a stop sign.

Arkansas Picked To Upset Mighty Texas Saturday

Scribe Also Chooses Pitt, Northwestern

HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A normal football season usually is made up of an equal number of hills and valleys. The Texas University team was at the top of the hill last week when it defeated Oklahoma and took over the honor of being rated the nation's No. 1 college team.

Arkansas was down in the valley, dropping its second of the season. The defeat this time was by Baylor and the two setbacks were by a total of five points.

This Saturday Arkansas gets revenge.

That's this week's blue-plate special. Last week's menu almost was devoid of attractions with 34 correct picks and 15 losers for .694. That dropped the season's totals to 143-57 for .715.

Other selections for the coming weekend:

Wisconsin over Iowa Hal Brandt of the Badgers may not outpitch Fred Riddle of Iowa, but the Wisconsin star will get more help from his teammates.

Pittsburgh over West Virginia: The West Virginians too big for their own good.

Mississippi over Tulane: Tulane has been shut out in three of four games this season while Mississippi's potent defense has held three opponents to only 13 points.

Oklahoma over Kansas: The disorganized Sooners pull themselves together.

Illinois over Minnesota: The surprising Illini display their talents at homecoming.

Georgia Tech over Auburn: Billy Lothridge of the Engineers can run, pass and kick.

Alabama over Tennessee: Both teams were disappointed last weekend but Alabama will recover more quickly.

Navy over Virginia Military: This game features the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk and Roger Staubach is the prize pearl of the Middles.

Northwestern over Miami of Ohio: Tommy Myers finds the range.

Air Force over Maryland: Terry Isaacson is the difference in an aerial battle.

Baylor over Texas Tech: Coach John Bridges has his pro-style offense clicking.

Duke over Clemson: Duke has found a passer, Scotty Glacken.

Syracuse over Penn State: They'll need a mile of bandages after this bruiser. A hesitant nod to the home team with its power backfield.

As we see it

By LYNN BROWNE & GLENN SCHOTTEN

The biggest game of the year in this district will be played in Lisbon Friday night when Coach Bud Bucher's county-seat crew plays host to the Leopards of Louisville in a tilt to decide the champs of the Tri-County loop.

Coach Hap Lillick's defending champs will invade with Bob Gladioux and Dale Minor leading the way against the Blue Devils who hope to cop the first league flag for their school since 1953 when All-Ohio quarterback Dean Nicholson passed the Buchermen to nine consecutive victories without a setback.

GARY PERUCHETTI, bruising Lisbon fullback, who gained honorable mention in the All-Ohio poll two years ago, and Dave Rose, whose brother Jerry played with Nicholson on the 1953 squad and whose brother Dean played on championship teams before that, will be the big men for the Blue and White.

Lisbon enters the contest with six wins under their belt while Louisville's lone loss was to

100 Tickets On Sale For Wellsville Game

A total of 100 reserve tickets for the Salem-Wellsville football game at the river city Friday at 6 p.m. Eight persons have already signed up. There is still room for an additional 30 riders, announces Fred Cope, athletic director at Senior High.

No advance tickets were sent for students. Their ducaus will cost 50 cents at the Wellsville ticket booth prior to the game.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

Over a period of three years a walleye from Berlin Reservoir, Portage, Stark and Mahoning County, probably set some sort of record for traveling before being caught at the new Markland Dam on the Ohio River, 40 miles below Cincinnati.

Dan Armbruster, district fish management supervisor here for the Division of Wildlife, pointed out that the fish had traveled approximately 673 miles in 1,222 days, or about a half-mile per day.

The walleye, 16 inches long, when netted, tagged and released on April 21, 1960, was caught last August 27. Joseph Backer, Indiana conservation officer, Vevay, forwarded the tag, stating that it now measured 20 inches. In writing to Backer, Armbruster traced the probable route of travel.

"The walleye dropped 54 feet over the Berlin Dam into the Mahoning River," he wrote. "Then it traveled through Lake Milton, also in the Mahoning, and again down the river through some of the heaviest industrial pollution in and near Youngstown. It entered the Beaver River in Pennsylvania, thence to the Ohio, which it followed downstream. En route, this poor fish went over about 25 dams."

COOPERATIVE HUNTING areas will be found in at least seven counties in northeastern Ohio this fall. This is the word from Robert Eversole, district game management supervisor for the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

"We have contracts with farmers already completed in these counties: Ashland, Holmes, Lorain, Summit, Columbiana, Richland and Portage," said the biologist. "Total acreage thus far is 3,500, and we expect up to 2,000 additional acres before the upland hunting season gets under way, Nov. 15. Other counties may be represented also."

Farms signed up under this program offer free hunting with permission. The division pro-

Green Proves He Can Carry Football, Too

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ernie Green, one of the men playing the halfback spot the Cleveland Browns had hoped the late Ernie Davis would fill, has proved to be worth a seventh draft choice for which he was acquired from the Green Bay Packers.

In fact, off his performance in the Browns' 35-24 triumph over the New York Giants Sunday, he has established himself as a breakout threat and has taken some of the heat off the great Jim Brown.

Green gained 66 yards on 11 carries against the Giants. He also caught a pass for a seven-yard gain.

But it was the type of running rather than the yardage that impressed the Browns. Green hasn't been a slasher, but he made yards against the Giants even when the Browns' line couldn't make a hole for him.

"We felt that we had to establish Ernie as a threat right away" against New York, Coach Blanton Collier said Tuesday.

Green came to the Browns in the summer of 1962 when it was learned Davis had leukemia and wouldn't be playing pro football. He will be in the starting lineup when the Browns play Philadelphia here Sunday, trying to make their record 6-0.

Fight Result
NEW YORK—Johnny Persol, 172½, stopped Johnny Alford, 170½, Philadelphia, 7.

"Squirrels are under-harvested at present," said Whitesell. "With an earlier opening date hunters should be able to take more. Nowadays, only about one-third of the bushy tails estimated to be present at the beginning of a season are bagged. Up to 60 per cent can be taken and the population can still be maintained, game management men have found."

THE ACCIDENTAL DEER kill is running well above that for 1962, according to Al Cannon, Wildlife District 4 game management supervisor.

The total reported to date for 1963 is 113 deer. This compares with 94 last year up to Oct. 1 so the increase is more than 20 per cent.

Texas Tackle Scott Appleton Selected Lineman Of The Week

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Texas tackle Scott Appleton, selected by Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal as the outstanding All-American candidate on the nation's top-ranked football team, was named Lineman of the Week today by The Associated Press.

The 21-year-old senior and team co-captain looked every inch an All-America last Saturday as undefeated Texas rolled to its fourth straight triumph with a devastating 28-7 victory over Oklahoma.

Playing both ways, Appleton made or assisted on 16 tackles. He led the first scoring drive at offensive tackle and set up the third touchdown by knocking Oklahoma quarterback Bobby Page loose from the ball, recovering it on the Sooners' 18-yard line.

Virginia center Turnley Todd, Minnesota tackle Carl Eller and Illinois linebacker Dick Butkus also received high praise in the poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

Todd made seven unassisted tackles in the first half in Virginia's 6-0 triumph over VMI and made a second half interception that stopped a VMI threat at Virginia's 30.

Butkus made or assisted on 23 tackles in a 20-20 tie with Ohio State. He set up Illinois' first touchdown with a pass interception.

Eller twice threw Northwest-ern quarterback Tommy Myers for long losses and recovered a Myers' fumble to blunt a Northwestern bid in the third quarter.

BOWLING SCORES

Clarence Votaw just missed an A. B. C. 100 over average award by three pins when he rolled a 254-game in the Area Merchants Bowling League at Saxon Lanes recently.

He took top honors in both the individual series 598 and high game departments during loop action.

Beverly Farms and Peoples Lumber are tied for first place in the standings with 19-5 records. Cornie's TV is third with a 17-7 mark.

S & H Vending rolled the high team series 2,585. Peoples Lumber came in with a 2,565. Valley View chalked up a 2,493 three-game set.

Jim Johnson fired a 565 series and a 223 game for second place in both divisions. Bull Tullis had a 539 series and Norm Eckfeld carded a 206 game.

CITY CAB MOVED into first place in the Class A League by sweeping four points from Koehler's. The losers fell from the

Navy's Staubach Is Still Leader In Statistics

NEW YORK (AP)—Jolly Roger Staubach, Navy's standout junior quarterback, is rambling along at a record pace in two major statistical categories, according to official figures released today by the NCAA Service Bureau.

The 190-pounder picked up 235 yards rushing and passing in the loss to Southern Methodist last week and now has a total offense mark of 1,024 for four games for an average of 261 a game.

And his 55 completions in 77 attempts puts him at the top of the passers. His completions percentage of .714 is the best ever after four games.

Staubach's total offense lead in 264 yards over runner-up Tommy Myers of Northwestern, but his passing mark is less secure.

Myers leads in passing yardage with 815. Staubach has 742. Jimmy Sidle of Auburn moved into the rushing lead with 434 yards on 64 carries.

Salem 2-Milers Win Third Straight Meet

Bill Carter, John Tarleton and Tom Pim, Salem's "big three," ran first, third and fourth respectively to pace the Quakers to victory in a triangular cross-country meet Tuesday.

It was the third straight for the defending district champions. Salem chalked up 23 points for the win. Youngstown Ursuline was second with 34 and Springfield finished third with 63.

Carter, finishing first for the third time in a row, had to hustle. Leahy of Ursuline pressed the hard working senior to an 11:02 mark. The Irish athlete came in second in 11:04.

Tarleton and Pim staged a friendly duel between themselves as the two Salem two-milers were a distant third and fourth. John nipped Tom by two seconds.

Other Salem runners to place in the top 15 included Wilson, seventh; Hippely, eighth; Stoddard, ninth and Nollner, 15th.

Newman cracked the top five list for Ursuline. He was followed by teammates O'Donnell, sixth; Crerand, 11; and Kossick, 12th.

Wassum led the Springfield unit as he finished 10th. Mercer was 13th and Smatula, 14th.

Instructors Bowling School Scheduled

A two-day certified instructors bowling school will get underway at Timberlanes Thursday at 9 a.m. and will finish with a final examination Friday from 4 to 5 p.m.

Pep Named To Hall Of Fame

Boxing Great Held Title For 7 Years

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Pep, a dapper, dandy dancer whose flying hands and feet earned him the world featherweight title and the nickname "Will o' the Wisp," is the latest addition to Boxing's Hall of Fame.

"It is nice news," said Pep when advised of his selection. "I was surprised that I got it now."

Now a sales representative for a radio company in Brockton, Mass., Pep said "I miss boxing very much. It was an exciting life and it gave you a chance to meet a lot of very nice people."

Light-footed Willie, now 41, was one of the fastest, most clever boxers in modern history. He won the featherweight title in 1942 with a 15-round decision over Chalky Wright in New York, was in military service for two years and retained the crown until the first of his four classic fights with Sandy Saddler.

The lanky Saddler won the first one on a fourth-round knockout in 1948, but Pep regained the title in 1949 with a decision over Saddler. Sandy won the next two on knockouts in 1950 and 1951.

Pep turned pro in 1940 and piled up the amazing record of 62 victories in a row before losing to Sammy Angott in an overweight match. He then won 72 of his next 73 bouts, marred only by a draw.

He was active until 1959 and had an over-all record of 220 victories, one draw and nine losses.

Pep is the 77th member to be named to the Hall since it was formed in 1954. Announcement of his election was made Tuesday by Nat Fleischer, publisher of Ring Magazine and custodian of the Hall.

Yankees Ralph Houk Named AL Manager Of The Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Houk, who guided the New York Yankees to the American League pennant in 1963 despite injuries to star outfielders Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris, was an overwhelming choice as the American League Manager of the Year today.

In the balloting by 71 baseball writers in the annual Associated Press poll, Houk received 58 votes. Al Lopez, pilot of the second-place Chicago White Sox, was the runner-up with 6 votes.

The voting was based on the regular season performances. Houk, the Yanks' leader since 1961 when he replaced Casey Stengel, had his most difficult assignment the past season after Mantle suffered a broken bone in his left foot while chasing a fly ball in Baltimore June 5.

At the time the Yanks were tied for first place with the Orioles and White Sox. Houk moved Tom Tresh from left field to Mantle's position in center and also got considerable mileage out of John Blanchard, Maris' replacement in right field.

Mantle, who was out of the regular line-up for almost three months, played in only 65 games. Despite this, the Yanks won the pennant by 10½ games.

Cincinnati Appears Threat In NBA Race

Celtics' Coach Auerbach Says His Team Will Miss Bob Cousy

"Damn right we'll miss him," leader of the National Basketball Association champions.

Cousy, the Celtics' "Mr. Basketball" and sparkplug of the team that won a record five straight league championships, has retired after 13 seasons.

The absence of the 13-time league all-star, two franchise shifts and a new league commissioner provide a new look to the NBA as the league opens its 18th season.

New look or no, the old question remains: Who's going to beat the Celtics?

They won the Eastern title by 10 games last year and are favored to repeat. Cousy is gone, but the champs still have the great Bill Russell and such standouts as the Jones boys, Sam and K.C., Tommy Heinsohn and Tom Sanders. And they've added backcourt ace Willie Naulls.

Cincinnati is expected to give them the most trouble in the East. Los Angeles, defending division champion and loser to Boston in the final round of the playoffs, is favored in the West.

J. Walter Kennedy, who succeeded Maurice Podoloff as league commissioner, has indicated he will run his nine-team circuit with a strong hand. The first game has yet to be played and he already has assessed Auerbach a $500 fine for a flare-up during an exhibition game.

The new franchises are at Philadelphia and Baltimore. Baltimore, out of the league since the 1953-54 season, took over the franchise of the Chicago turn to the league after an absence of one year, taking over the Syracuse franchise.

Lothridge Named Back of the Week

ATLANTA (AP)—"I don't consider myself doing all the work. It was a great team effort."

So said Billy Lothridge, Georgia Tech quarterback who is known as "Mr. Do-It-All" at Georgia Tech because he is one of the few triple-threats in these days of football specialists.

Lothridge was discussing his performance in Tech's 23-7 victory over Tennessee last Saturday, for which he was named Associated Press Back of the Week for the second time in three weeks.

"It's a great honor but I didn't do it all," said the 21-year-old senior. "I had plenty of help."

Against Tennessee Lothridge scored one touchdown, passed 54 yards for another, kicked two extra points and a field goal and averaged 41 yards punting.

Lothridge first earned the honor against Clemson. In that game he accounted for all 27 of Tech's points in the shutout. He threw three touchdown passes, kicked two field goals and three extra points and kept Clemson backed up to its goal with his punting.

Tech Coach Bobby Dodd considers Lothridge the best quarterback he has ever coached.

"He doesn't do everything perfectly," Dodd said. "But he gets the job done in everything he does. Punting is probably what he is best at. But he's a tough runner and has improved tremendously this year on the option play. His passing is sometimes inconsistent, but when he's right he's a great passer."

Drought, Woodland Blazes Continue To Plague Nation

CHICAGO (AP) — Drought and woodland fires continued to plague many parts of the nation today.

Drought conditions in some areas in the eastern half of the nation appeared near the critical stage. Hundreds of fires burned in the tinder-dry forestlands in the Northeast and Midwest sections.

Summer's lush green pasture lands in much of the Western rangelands and in other areas were dry and brittle. Hay shortages were reported. There was a heavy decline in feed for livestock. Milk production sagged. Marketing of cattle was higher than normal for the season.

Water levels on most of the Great Lakes and many major rivers and streams were below seasonal levels. Water shortages developed in some communities and restrictions were ordered.

No accurate estimate of the damage the drought and fires have already caused in the past several weeks was available. But the Wabash Valley Association in Indiana said that drought damage in southern Indiana and southeastern Illinois alone may total between $35 million and $50 million.

There appeared no immediate, general break in the long dry, mild spell across much of the eastern half of the country. Record high temperatures have been set in scores of cities in the first half of October, with readings in the 90s and upper 80s.

However, some heavy thunderstorms erupted in the Central Plains and Mississippi Valley. Thunderstorms accompanied by lightning struck West Central Kansas with the first rain of consequence since Sept. 2. A four-hour storm which dumped 2.55 inches of rain on Hutchinson.

In the Southeast, 1.02 inches were recorded during a six-hour period in Miami, Fla. Thunderstorms also fell on many other parts of Florida.

Hundreds of fires have burned thousands of acres of forestland in more than a dozen states. New York state's vast and valuable forestlands appeared hardest hit. But fires also spread across other areas in the Northeast, including Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Flames also whipped through wooded areas in West Virginia, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee and Texas.

Hundreds of volunteers joined firemen in fighting the fires. In Michigan, Gov. George Romney's ban on fires in forests, fields and woodlands goes into effect today, the first such statewide order in 17 years. Fire danger was rated very high, and "explosive" in a few areas.

In Pennsylvania, Gov. William W. Scranton banned smoking and campfires in state forests. Nearly 200 forest fires have been reported in the state in October.

Some of the nation's biggest rivers were at or near record low levels. Included were Pennsylvania's three major river systems, the Allegheny-Monongahela-Ohio, the Susquehanna and the Delaware. Lower water levels also have curtailed the barge traffic on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

Mishaps

Stoffer coming up behind Ganslein applied the brakes and went left of center, meeting the northbound Grandbouche a u o almost dead center, the patrol reported.

The Austinburg car with the four men plunged into the ditch on the east side of the highway and overturned. Stoffer's auto remained upright on the road. Both cars were severely damaged.

The accident is still under investigation by the patrol. Two Trucks Collide

Mrs. Hruby, wife of Steve Hruby, was hurt on Route 9, three and a half miles south of Salem, when she backed her pickup truck from her driveway into the path of a tractor trailer operated by William Lee Haney, 39, of Mineral City.

Haney told the Lisbon patrol he was rounding a curve on Route 9 as the woman pulled onto the road. He attempted to avoid a collision by steering to the left but his rig tipped and struck the side of the pickup.

Because of Mrs. Hruby's unconscious condition last night, the patrol was unable to learn the details of the mishap immediately.

Miss Schumacker's and Gray's cars collided nearly headon today at 6:24 a.m. near North Benton on Alt. Route 14.

Mahoning County Deputy Sheriff Arthur Eells at Sebring, who investigated the mishap, said Gray had just passed a coal truck when the woman's car went left of center and collided with the Salem vehicle.

Gray's auto went out of control for 200 yards and into a field on the south side of the road while Mrs. Schumacker's car plowed into a ditch. Eells said both vehicles were a total loss.

The deputy sheriff did not issue a citation pending further investigation.

2 Youngstown Men Released on Bond

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two Youngstown men charged with violating internal revenue laws were released on bond Tuesday after pleading innocent in U.S. District Court.

They are Ronald Carrabia, 34, indicted last week on a charge of making a false gambling tax stamp return, and Philip Mainier, 38, indicted for failure to file income tax returns for 1960 and 1961.

Deaths Funerals

Camp Infant

COLUMBIANA — Richard William Camp, one day old, of RD 1, Columbiana, died at 5:15 p.m. yesterday at the Central Clinic Hospital.

He was the son of William and Marilyn Rohrer Camp. He is also survived by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sittler of Dallas, Tex., and maternal grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy Smith of Dallas, Tex., and maternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrold of Columbiana.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. today at Seederly-Bellhart Funeral Home, with Pastor Frank Lilley officiating. Burial was in Columbiana Cemetery.

Mrs. S. B. Trainer

SEBRING — Mrs. Helen I. Trainer, 52, of 315 E. Ohio Ave. died of complications at 3:30 a.m. today in the Alliance City Hospital following a five week illness.

Born in Carroll County Sept. 31, 1911, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wiggins, she was a member of the First Methodist Church and Alma Chapter of Eastern Star.

Mrs. Trainer is survived by her husband, Selwyn B.; her parents in Carrollton; a daughter, Mrs. Pauline Scullion of Salem; three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Kovach of Louisville, Mrs. Doris Shipman of Canton, and Mrs. Hazel Knox of Amsterdam; a brother Harold Wiggins of Canton, and three grandchildren.

Private services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Vogt Funeral Home. Burial will be in Fairmount Memorial Park, Alliance.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

County Medical Unit, Auxiliary Hear Talk

Dr. John S. McDonough of Youngstown was guest speaker at a joint dinner meeting of the Columbiana County Medical Society and the ladies auxiliary Tuesday evening in the Wick Hotel at Lisbon.

Dr. McDonough, who served as a surgeon on the hospital ship USS Hope, stationed at Peru, told of his experiences, illustrating his talk with color slides.

Dr. Virgil C. Hart presided at the meeting.

Announcement was made that post graduate work will be discussed at the district meeting Wednesday at Packard Music Hall in Warren. Doctors from Columbiana, Mahoning, Trumbull, Stark, Summit and Portage counties are expected to attend.

The next meeting of the society will be Nov. 19 in the Wick Hotel.

CHIP OFF A STAR — When Peter Fonda, son of star Henry, decided acting was his dish, wild horses couldn't hold him. Here, he's shown with Sharon Huguely in his fourth film, "The Young Lovers."

Columbiana Council Gets Citizens' Schools Report

COLUMBIANA — Members of the "Citizens Committee for Better Schools," Sam Lindsay Jr., D. W. Bailey and Roy Allen, were present when Council met Tuesday evening in the village hall, with all members present.

The committee was present to discuss the three-mill levy to be presented to the voters Nov. 5. According to the committee, services such as the extra languages classes, drivers training and summer school will be curtailed if the levy does not pass.

The fire protection contract with Fairfield Township which expires Oct. 31, was renewed by Council.

Trucks with a gross weight of four tons or over will be prohibited from through traffic on W. Park Ave., and E. Woodland Ave. A fine of $5 to $50 will be imposed for violators.

Clerk George Snoko was authorized to advertise for bids to supply labor and material for the building of the sewage plant and interceptor sewer.

Council established a separate fund designated "sewage disposal plant and interceptor sewer improvement fund" and transferred $10,000 from the sewer fund to the new account.

Fire Chief Marcus Hum requested that residents refrain from burning leaves and bonfires until the dry weather has abated.

Council will meet again Nov. 5.

County Teachers To Attend Canton Convention Oct. 25

Salem's 168 teachers and hundreds of others from Columbiana County will attend the fifth annual convention of the East Central Ohio Teachers Association Oct. 25 in Canton.

County ECOTA public relations man Jerry Russell, new elementary supervisor of Leetonia district schools, announced today that Abram Leon Sachar, Brandeis University's first president, will be guest speaker. His topic will be "Education for What?" Brandeis in the heart of New England was founded in 1948 and Sachar was the pioneer head.

Pupils Get Day Off

Salem and other schools will dismiss their pupils for the convention to be held at Canton Memorial Auditorium. Over 6,000 teachers will attend from Columbiana, Stark, Holmes, Tuscarawas, Carroll and Wayne Counties.

Mrs. Sara M. Knight, sixth grade teacher at Fourth Street School and president of the Classroom Teachers Department of ECOTA, will lead the largest session at Timken High School. Speaker at the classroom teachers department meeting will be Dr. Ronald W. Roskens, dean of men at Kent State University. His subject is "The Professionalization of Teaching."

Other Columbiana County persons will have major roles. George Hargraves, principal of East Liverpool High School, is leader of the session for administrators at which Dr. Charles M. Foreman, KSU education professor, will speak. Carl F. Polini of Westgate School in East Liverpool will lead the session on social studies.

U.N. Ban on A-Weapons In Space Assured

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Full support from the United States and the Soviet Union makes General Assembly approval today of a ban on orbiting nuclear weapons in space.

The 111-nation political committee called a special meeting to rush through a resolution sponsored by the United States, the Soviet Union, and 15 other countries, outlawing nuclear-armed satellites. Committee bly passage a formality.

The resolution, first tangible cold war breakthrough since the limited nuclear test ban treaty, stems from an agreement announced Oct. 3 after talks here by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home.

The United States and the Soviet Union have conceded that the advantage of orbiting nuclear weapons in space is more psychological than military.

Introduction of the resolution highlighted the opening of the committee's disarmament debate Tuesday.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson told the committee his country hopes to include underground nuclear tests in a comprehensive treaty provided that adequate verification and on-site inspection is guaranteed. He challenged the Russians to spell out what scientific machinery they will accept to assure such verification.

Three Force Man To Aid In Escape

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—Three men identified as escapees from the Lebanon Correctional Institution, seized a Warren County man at his home near here Tuesday night and forced him at knife point to drive them to a point north of London.

Warren County Deputy Sheriff William Dyer said the victim of the abduction was Ray Gibson, 22, who lives about five miles from the correctional institution.

He said Gibson identified pictures of Edward Sova, 18; Warren Williams, 24, and Erwood Riggs, 27, as his kidnappers. They escaped from the correctional institution Monday night by crawling through a basement window at the honor dormitory.

Dyer said Gibson told officers one of the men came to his home and said his car had stalled and asked Gibson if he would give him a push.

When Gibson went out the other two men were sitting in his car and the three forced him to drive them away.

Gibson said the men told him there were two others who would be holding Gibson's wife and child if he did not drive them away.

That turned out to be false. Gibson said the men told him they had been hiding in the barn and apparently had observed his movements.

When the trio finally left Gibson he notified Franklin County authorities and then returned here.

Patrol Stresses Closer Inspection Of School Buses

Speaking to 110 Mahoning County school bus drivers, Sgt. Albert A. Lelakus of the Canfield post of the State Highway Patrol said closer inspection of the vans by drivers and mechanics is needed throughout the year to keep the vehicles safer for children.

Lelakus, at the annual follow-up session after the regular patrol inspection, told the drivers and school administrators that one of three buses checked had some defect. Of 228 buses examined by Patrolmen J. W. Smith and J. W. Dawson, two were ruled unserviceable and 73 had various defects, including faulty brakes. These flaws have since been corrected and the buses are now fit to carry children.

The chief officer of the Canfield barracks, at the session at Canfield High School, gave results of the post's inspection and outlined methods of improving the checkup next year. He asked that drivers appear at the designated time and place of inspection, as required by law. Some drivers did not report and the two inspecting officers had to return to the school, Lelakus said. He requested that equipment be put in shape for the inspection and that a driver or attendant be at each bus.

Patrolman Smith assisted in the program and screened a traffic safety film, "Mechanized Death."

Opponents Trade Lead In Close S. Korean Election

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Two candidates offering a choice between democratic or military government traded the lead today in the closest presidential election in South Korea's history.

With 81 per cent of an estimated 10.8 million ballots counted, strong man Chung Hee Park had 3,716,878 votes and his leading civilian opponent, former President Yun Po-Sun, had 3,704,750. An unofficial tabulation gave Park 4,046,738 votes and Yun 4,019,941.

Yun, 67, candidate of the Civil Rule party and slashing critic of Park's military regime, went into hiding as the ballots were counted. He obviously feared Park's military backers would arrest him.

It seemed apparent that the final tabulation would not end the fierce struggle between the military leaders who have ruled Korea for 29 months and the civilian politicians they displaced in the May 16, 1961, coup. The losing side was sure to think the winner had not received sufficient mandate to rule unchallenged.

The race was close from the time the vote counting began Tuesday. No one appeared more surprised than Yun's supporters.

Many had thought Park, 46, would easily win a four-year term and go on to form a government-oriented national assembly in elections Nov. 26.

Park went into the election against the advice of advisers who counseled a crackdown on the civilian opposition. He appeared to have hopes of a landslide victory endorsing his record as chief of the military junta.

The election showed that Park had lost much of the popular support he had when he seized power.

The government's Democratic Republican party prepared long and hard for the election, using much more money and influence than Yun could command.

One opposition candidate, former Premier Yo-chan Song, was jailed and severe restrictions were placed on others.

stated that she did not have a report on the general fund at this time. The auditor was told to give her report on the Street Department's financial status to the service director, James Feiler.

In other action, Council passed unanimously an ordinance transferring $3,756 from the income tax capital improvement fund to the service department for purchasing a new dump truck.

Another ordinance to transfer $950 from the capital improvement fund to the service department fund for purchase of a used truck for the service director, was rejected.

Councilmen James Gibb, Jack Rance, Ralph Zimmerman and Fred Koenreich voted against introduction of the ordinance, with Councilmen Aldom, Harold Asty and Albert Lesch voting "yes."

63 Tax Rates Accepted

Council passed a resolution accepting the amounts and rates as determined by the County Budget Commission and authorizing the necessary 1963 tax levies and certifying them to the county auditor.

Under the plan, Salem will receive a total of $68,855 from levies outside the 10-mill limitation (those voted upon by the public) and $137,710 from levies inside the 10-mill limitation.

A breakdown on the voted taxation shows the bond retirement fund getting $28,352 and the Parks Commission $40,855.

Levies inside the 10-mill limitation the general fund, $8,100 for bond retirement and $24,302 for the pension fund.

The bond retirement fund (inside) is for general obligations which include city buildings, street sweeper and the city's share of street improvements.

The bond retirement fund outside the 10-mill limit includes funds for storm sewers and City Hall bonds.

Council voted to hold its next regular session Nov. 6 instead of Nov. 5, which is election day.

Bacon Scrapple Real Delight

Bored with the same old breakfast pattern? Then it's time for a change. How does this appeal to you—baked apples stuffed with raisins, bacon scrapple with real maple syrup (if you can find it) and strong clear coffee? Robust and good, wouldn't you say?

Mrs. von P., whose family is Pennsylvania Dutch, sends us her modern version of her grandmother's recipe.

BACON SCRAPPLE
Makes 6 servings

1/2 pound bacon, cut in small pieces, 1 cup cold water 1 cup enriched corn meal 3/4 teaspoon salt 3 cups boiling water.

Pan-fry bacon pieces. Drain well on absorbent paper. Combine cold water corn meal and salt; slowly pour into boiling water stirring constantly. Bring to boiling point; cover and continue cooking over low heat 5 minutes stirring occasionally.

Add drained bacon; mix well. Pour into an 8 1/2 x 4 1/2 x 2 1/2 inch loaf pan. Cool slightly; cover and chill several hours or overnight. Cut chilled scrapple into 1/2-inch slices. Fry on lightly greased griddle or in frying pan over medium heat until golden brown. Serve with syrup.

half to make pieces about 1-inch long. Dip into batter holding with kitchen fork or tongs. Drain off excess batter. Fry in hot deep fat (375-degrees) 2 to 3 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. Insert toothpicks. Serve hot with barbecue sauce.

Duck Dish For Gourmets

According to Mrs. H. R., business executive and home gourmet, it just isn't true what they say about ducks. "Too much for one and not enough for two." Today's specially bred ducks are so plump one feeds four nicely."

Here is her easy version of the gourmet dish "Duck a L'Orange Moderne." The ducks are quartered and cooked with frozen orange concentrate. By overlapping the quarters in the roasting pan, it is as easy to cook three ducks for twelve people as to roast one whole duck. Serving is easier, too, because the birds come from the oven already carved.

DUCKS A L'ORANGE MODERNE (Serves 8)

1 (6-oz.) container frozen concentrated orange juice, undiluted, 2 (4-lb.) frozen ducklings, cut in quarters, 1/4 cup brown sugar firmly packed, 1/4 cup granulated sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon cornstarch.

Defrost orange juice until it can be removed easily from container. Leave ducklings in refrigerator about 24 hours, then wash the quarters. Arrange duck quarters—skin side up—in shallow roasting pan and bake in 325-degree oven (moderate) for 3 hours or until tender and browned. (If bony parts get crisp and dry, brush them with vegetable oil and wrap firmly with aluminum foil.) One hour before duck will be done, discard fat from pan and add 1/4 cup water to prevent sticking.

For orange glaze, mix orange juice, sugars, salt and cornstarch in heavy saucepan. Bring to boil over high heat; then lower heat and simmer, stirring constantly, about 3 minutes or until transparent and thickened. 15 minutes before removing duck from oven, baste the quarters 2 or 3 times with the sauce. After removing from oven to serving platter, pour the drippings remaining in pan into remaining orange sauce and reheat. Serve from sauce boat, spooning it over each serving of duck.

ALMOND COOKIES

1 and one-third cups sifted flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup each vegetable shortening and margarine, 1/2 cup superfine granulated sugar, 1/2 teaspoon almond extract, 1 egg, separated, 24 whole blanched almonds.

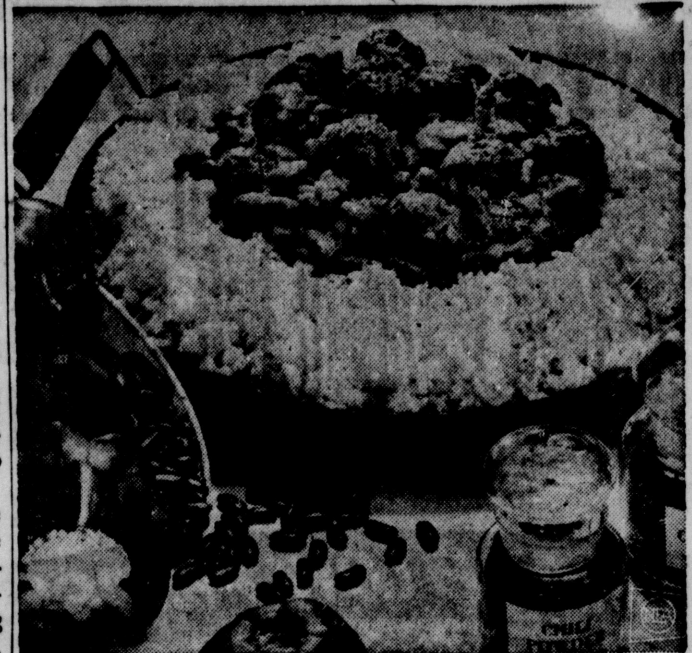

Sift together the flour and salt. Cream shortening, margarine and sugar; beat in almond extract and egg yolk extra well. Gradually stir in flour mixture. Using about 1 tablespoon for each, roll dough into balls and flatten slightly; mixture will be dry.

Place 1 inch apart on greased cookie sheet; press an almond in the center of each, lightly pressing together the edges that crack. Beat the egg white (less than half of it will be needed) until foamy throughout; brush over top of cookies.

Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly tinged with brown, 15 to 20 minutes. Remove with spatula to wire rack to cool. Store in tightly covered container. Makes 2 dozen.

A smoked tongue that weighs about three pounds will need almost three hours of simmering.

Chilly Weather Time for Chili

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Cooler weather brings thoughts of chili dishes. Mrs. L. who lives in the Southwest, sends a luscious recipe to us, saying, "You never can be sure how much chili powder a person will like in his dish."

My family likes lots of it. We're used to it. But when we have guests, I put a shaker of chili powder on the table so everyone can suit his own taste."

CHILI WITH MEAT BALLS (6 SERVINGS)

1 pound ground lean beef, 1-3 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 egg, lightly beaten, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons chili powder 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 2 tablespoons instant minced onion cup tomato uice or milk, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1-3 cup instant onion flakes, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 3 to 4 teaspoons chili powder, 1 teaspoon crumbled whole oregano leaves, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder, 2 8-ounce cans tomato sauce, 1 pound can red kidney beans, 5 cups of cooked rice.

Combine first 8 ingredients. Shape into balls. Brown on all sides in hot shortening. Remove meat balls. Add onion flakes green pepper, chili powder, oregano leaves and cook until peppers are limp. Add black pepper, garlic powder, tomato sauce and red kidney beans. Cook 5 minutes or until thickened. Add meat balls. Heat and serve over hot cooked rice.

Peaches, Yams Aid Chicken

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Broiler-fryer chickens are plentiful and on the budget list. Use them often but try to prepare them in many different ways. Try combining them with fruits and vegetables into gourmet dishes easy to make.

Like this unusual recipe sent in by a high school home economics teacher Mrs. B. D. who says it is not enough just to learn how to cook. Learning to cook deliciously is the important point. Particularly if a girl hopes to keep a husband happy.

POT O' GOLD CHICKEN (6 servings)

1 can (1 pound 13 ounce) cling peach slices 1-3 cup flour 2 teaspoons salt 1/2 teaspoon pepper 6 serving pieces chicken 3 tablespoons salad oil 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard 1/4 cup coarsely chopped onion 1 to 2 teaspoons grated orange rind 1/2 cup orange juice 1 can (1 pound 2 ounce) small yams drained 1 package (10 ounce) frozen peas thawed.

Drain peaches saving 1 cup syrup. Measure flour salt and pepper into paper bag shake chicken pieces in flour mixture to coat. (Save remaining mixture to thicken sauce.) Brown chicken in oil in large skillet. In saucepan gradually blend reserved syrup into remaining flour mixture and mustard; add onion orange constantly until slightly thickened. Pour over chicken; cover and simmer 20 minutes. Add yams peach slices and peas. Cover and continue simmering 10 minutes or longer.

Spicy Appetizers for Parties

Looking for good appetizers now that the party season is in full swing? Two readers make delicious and different suggestions.

Edward E. Zwaaf, youthful director of New York's never closed "Brasserie," enjoys a busman's holiday occasionally by entertaining at home. "Try my favorite appetizer. On bamboo sticks, arrange first a thin slice of radish, then a slice of ripe olive, then a rolled anchovy, next a cooked shrimp, then a slice of green pepper. Repeat in this order using 2 or 3 anchovies and 2 or 3 shrimp. Serve with a good cocktail sauce or your favorite dip."

Mrs. L. R. writes: "My spicy sausage appetizers are perfect for fall cocktail parties after a football game. Very easy to make, too."

SPICY SAUSAGE APPETIZERS (Makes 3 1/2 dozen)

1 cup pancake mix, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 2-3 cup cold water, 3 4-ounce cans Vienna sausage, Barbecue sauce.

Combine pancake mix and parsley in bowl. Add water and beat with rotary beater until smooth, about 2 minutes.

Cut each Vienna sausage in

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions And Answers

Q—I have a large roll of sagging tissue on my abdomen. Would a plastic operation help me?

Dr. Brandstadt: There is no short cut to weight reduction or the removal of rolls of fat. Many years ago the plastic surgeons tried the type of operation you have in mind, but the results were poor and it is no longer advised. Anyone who really wants to lose weight can do so, but most persons who are overweight give their desire for food first priority and their desire to lose weight second or third priority.

Q—I am 63. In the last few years I notice that if I take milk in any amount I get a severe pain in my chest. Is there any way the milk could be treated so that I could again enjoy it on my cereal?

A—You must have developed an allergy to milk. As long as you have it there is no way to avoid the symptoms without omitting milk from your diet. Although desensitization is often successful for allergy to pollens it is rarely effective for allergy to foods. This is because with pollens we are dealing with a microscopic amount of the offending material while with foods we are dealing with much larger amounts. If there is a source of goat's milk available you might find that you are not allergic to milk in that form.

Q—When my baby was born, part of the afterbirth stayed behind and later I started to bleed. What caused this and what are my chances of it happening again after another baby?

A—What causes part of the afterbirth to remain behind is not known but it happens often enough that every doctor should examine the afterbirth very carefully. When even a small part of it is missing it should be removed at once. Otherwise hemorrhage, sometimes fatal, will surely follow. The chances that this would happen again to you are very slight but, if it did happen, prompt recognition of the fact should lead your doctor to take immediate steps to remove the missing fragment.

what YOU should know about FLU

Nobody knows whether influenza will strike this year in the same epidemic proportions it reached in the fall and winter of 1957-58. However we must be on guard against a disease that is ever imminent and can prove so costly.

PROTECTION IS SIMPLE
Have your physician give you the simple protective vaccine that can safeguard you against the discomfort of influenza and possible serious interruption in your work.

This vaccine usually takes from 4 to 6 weeks after injection to produce maximum immunity, which is believed to last from 6 to 12 months.

MANY SYMPTOMS
Influenza may be accompanied by weakness, lassitude, chills, muscular pain, headache, fever, (usually from 101 to 103 degrees) nausea, vomiting, sore throat or cough. When any or all appear, go home and to bed, then check with your doctor.

GET PROMPT TREATMENT
Bed rest, aspirin and plenty of fluids are effective measures, but your doctor should be consulted at once so that he can be on the lookout for complications such as pneumonia.

BE PREPARED
Check with us for medicine cabinet needs such as a thermometer, aspirin, mouth washes, gargles, etc. We will be glad to give you professional guidance in making your selections.

Q—Is it all right for me to continue the use of Stelazine over a period of a year or more? What are the side effects of this drug?

A—You are taking one of the many tranquilizers now available and I would certainly not advise its use for so prolonged a period. As with all tranquilizers, the principal side effect is drowsiness, but this drug does not cause side effects when the dosage is small. Since the drug can be obtained only on a doctor's prescription, why don't you talk to your doctor about cutting down and eventually stopping it. Some solution should be sought for whatever emotional problems have been making you so jittery that you had to have a tranquilizer in the first place.

what the problem was.

Vanik said he expressed concern that the U.S. Mint "has not been able to anticipate the tremendous demand for coins."

The congressman wondered whether the lack of nickels was related to the silver bill recently passed by Congress.

The Treasury assured Vanik there were "ample stocks of bullion available for coinage," and it was doing everything possible to meet the coin demand.

Eva Adams, Mint director, noted that the Mint produced 3.6 billion coins in fiscal 1963, compared with 3.5 billion in 1962 and 3 billion in 1961. The mint supply to Cleveland also has increased over the last three years.

It's Hard to Make Nickel These Days

CLEVELAND (AP)—To some big money men, it may seem to be a penny-ante problem.

But some Cleveland merchants insist it's more. For those in the vending machine business, it's a genuine nickel and dime crisis—mostly in nickels.

In fact, they have complained to Rep. Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio that it's hard to make a nickel these days because of a shortage of this coin.

One restaurant, with a $1,500-a-week business requiring $150 in nickels, reported it has been allocated a supply of only $20 a week.

Vanik, seeking to bring back the nickel, went to Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon to see

FICTION

HEART OF THE VILLAGE by Elizabeth Corbett. The Village of the title is Greenwich Village, the time is the twenties. Principal characters are middle-aged Alice and Harry Martin who own a book store, and give advice to the aspiring young artists and writers who live around them. Done with a very light touch, but good for an evening's entertainment.

THE MAKE BELIEVE MAN by Elizabeth Fenwick. A suspense story with compelling force, this is the story of a man who steals the key to a house where he has formerly roomed and comes in at odd times. When the police identify him as a man wanted for murder in Chicago, the terror begins. It holds all the way to the sudden and unexpected ending.

VOICES IN THE EVENING by Natalia Ginzburg. A small town in Italy is the setting for a short novel about the affairs of a family which has quite a lot of money but knows almost nothing about how to use it, for their father built up the fortune from nothing. The writing is very good, translation has been well handled.

PRINCE ISHMAEL by Marianna Hauser. Here is still another novel the critics judge to be exceedingly well written. The incident out of which the plot has been constructed was a historical one - the appearance of a strange young man in Nuremberg during the early part of the nineteenth century, and his almost equally mysterious disappearance only five years later.

THE CHINESE GARDEN by Rosemary Manning. An English girl's school is the background for a story of characters who symbolize good and evil, hypocrisy and deceit, and young innocence. Rachel found the Chinese garden behind locked gates in a distant corner of the school grounds, but even here she cannot escape from the knowledge of evil - for this garden symbolizes the Garden of Evil.

CITIES OF THE FLESH by Zoe Oldenbourg. Miss Oldenbourg is the most competent author today in the field of French history during the Middle Ages. This novel is a re-created part of the Abigensian Crusade, particularly the story of Roger de Montbrun who was embroiled in it, suffered imprisonment and inquisition.

ONCE UPON A WALL — Under the watchful eye of a uniformed guard, a soldier of the Communist East German People's Army installs new barbed wire on the wall dividing the city of Berlin. The shirtless soldier was part of a crew reinforcing a section of the hated wall. In the background is another barrier of wood slats which is apparently intended to block the view into East Berlin.

THE ROYAL PAWN by Antonia Ridge. The life story in fiction form of Katherine of Valois, whose grandson became Henry VII, founder of the Tudor dynasty of England. Like many other royal children of the period, she was neglected by her power-hungry mother. Her father was subject to fits of madness, and she herself survived at all only because she was fortunate enough to have been reared by a healthy and intelligent woman who hid her away from the so-called doctors of the time.

Hanover Troop 52

Ten members of Boy Scout Troop 52 of Hanover Township comprised a work detail who worked at cleaning out the two Vandergreen Locks at Beaver Creek State Park on a recent weekend.

Those participating were: Gary Orsburn, David Orsburn, Jack Wilson, Jack Reeder, Tom Reeder, Delwin Wickersham, Tom Wickersham, Wayne Moore, Jerry Clay and Steve Stambaugh. Robert Stambaugh is leader.

The evening of Sept. 28 the troop held a tenderfoot ceremony honoring new scouts, Gary Orsburn, Jack Reeder and Tom Wickersham.

Mickey Faloan, who was unable to join the work detail, attended the ceremony and wienner roast following the day's events.

'Copter Crash Fatal to Six Under Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — Investigators probed the burned wreckage of a twin-engine helicopter Tuesday seeking to determine why it crashed, killing all six aboard.

The 10-ton Boeing Vertol 107 had just lifted off Monday for a seven-minute flight from Idlewild Airport to the East River heliport at the foot of Wall Street in Manhattan when it exploded about 100 feet in the air.

It was the first fatal crash in the 10 years that New York Airways has been shuttling passengers between metropolitan metropolitan airports.

The line grounded all helicopters after the crash, pending determination of the cause.

Only three passengers and three crew members, including a stewardess, were aboard the ill-fated craft. It had a passenger capacity of 25.

"I heard a loud explosion—like a big truck backfire—and I turned around and all I saw was a ball of fire," said one witness, an American Airlines employee who declined use of his name.

One of the two gas-turbine engines which rotate twin propellers became dislodged and hurtled to the ground. The fuselage spiraled down slowly, burning on impact near the center of the 4,900-acre airport.

Federal officials haven't confirmed that an explosion occurred.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

A word from THERON at the Country Store

About this tragic accident where eight people were killed-The two youngest were children of a truck driver. Their mothers, sister work here, her husband is also a truck driver.

This accident must be blamed not only on the truck driver but also on these vote seeking politicians who had been dragging their feet on getting this lake to river road done. This will take heavy truck traffic off this dangerous road.

I think we were passed by in favor of areas where more votes were available. Here were eight people who will never be able to vote.
